He is the best golfer ever, he is the ^{wealthiest} ~~wealthiest~~ athlete alive, and he is the person I would like to meet who is he... Tiger Woods! Ever since I started playing golf I always ~~dreams~~ dreamed of meeting a professional golfer. When I watched golf on TV Tiger would win every time. I'm always surprised when Tiger loses.

Practicing golf is what made Tiger Woods as good as he is at it and that is one of the reasons I admire him. He practices for almost five hours a day! The most difficult aspect of golf is putting but Tiger is one of the best at putting on the PGA. Tiger Woods always looks calm and relaxed when he is playing golf and he never gets mad.

Since Tiger Woods has tons of cash he made an enormous school and they don't just teach you golf there. Science, Math, sports and other things are taught at his school. Tiger makes millions of dollars a year from playing in golf tournaments.

Tiger Woods has a huge house and a swimming pool two tennis courts, and a golf course.

If I met Tiger Woods first I would play golf with him. After that I would see if he was good at tennis. Next I would get a tour of his whole enormous house. Then I would play some more golf. Finally I would head to his garage to see if he had any fast cars or golf carts.

Without all of the cameras and reporters Tiger Woods probably ~~does~~ does normal things other than practicing golf for five hours. If I was Tiger I'd get fed up with all of the cameras and annoying reporters. Almost everybody in the whole ~~the~~ United States of America knows that Tiger Woods is the ~~greatest~~ ^{grandest} golfer in the world.

Leonardo de Capprio is a ~~ger~~great actor and that is why I chose him over all the celebrities in the world just because of the movies he was in and the home he might live in and many more!

A simple piece of music flows through your ears as the theater's screen slowly lights up. The piece is playful and charming, creating a joyful feeling in your heart. Slowly, other instruments join in, creating harmonies that bring enjoyable memories to your mind. Soon enough, the music surrounds you and you slowly forget where you are, only interested in the beautiful river of music flowing through your ears. When you finally snap out of it, you wonder how anyone could possibly create such a sound out of simple instruments. No longer caring for the movie you paid for, you leave the theater to search for the man behind the music, Andrew Lloyd Webber. Andrew Lloyd Webber creates such a feeling of inspiration and passion inside me, I would do anything I could to meet him.

Andrew Lloyd Webber has an amazing ability to put words and music together. He makes each piece specially to fit the words as if they were two puzzle pieces that slide together to fit perfectly. Just like making a perfect batch of home made cookies, he adds just the right amount of passion, emotion, inspiration, and interest to make the music the best experience it can be. His concepts could also be compared to painting a picture; using some watercolors and thick paints, a dash of blue or a spot of green. His music is something you will want to hear again and again just to feel its tuneful presence around you. Clearly, Andrew Lloyd Webber's music is not something to be ignored. When creating a piece of art, inspiration is the key, and something

Andrew Lloyd Webber has plenty of. Through all the notes and beats, everyone finds somewhat of a connection between their dreams and the music. It may inspire you to pursue your imaginative longing, or make you feel you should choose a different path. Andrew Lloyd Webber's music is made to let us feel that way. Anyone that doesn't feel that way is surely not listening closely enough. Without a doubt, his pieces create different emotions for the listener.

Understanding of his attempts at emotion are sometimes mistaken, but not by me. His music makes me feel free and ~~see~~ without worries. I feel as if I have a special relationship between the music and myself. When the music is low and slow, I feel gloomy. When it is quickpaced and upbeat, I am joyful. His music is the only kind that makes me feel that way. I understand that his music is designed to make us feel that way, ~~is~~ and I believe that is pure genius.

In conclusion, Andrew Lloyd Webber's pieces are works of art and inspired me to be myself no matter what. He is pure genius and I would love to meet him. If I ever did, I would study the way he works and creates the words and music that go into musicals, movies, and CD's all over the world and try to take after his work. I know that Andrew Lloyd Webber is the man that I would decide to encounter if it were ever possible.
